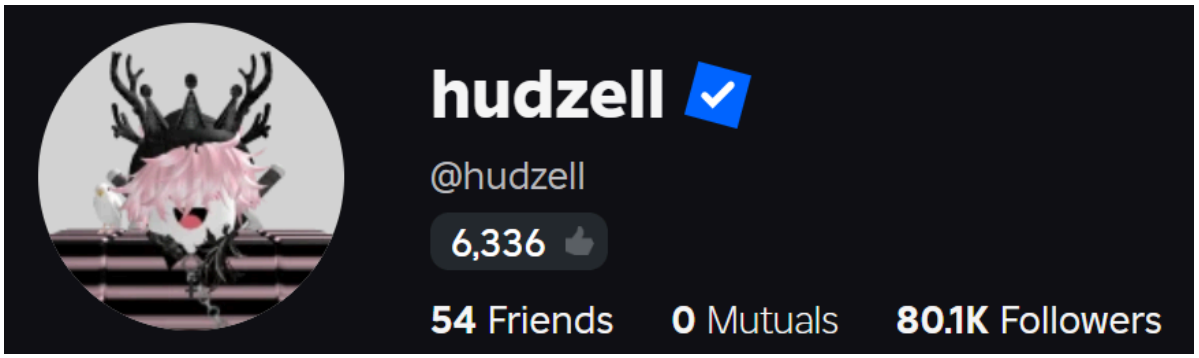
HUDZELL EXPOSE DOCUMENT UPDATED (by buckid)



Video form of this document: https://youtu.be/pxrxRSRVqFQ

In November of 2024 I made a document/video on Hudzell, who is a verified Roblox developer most known for PARKOUR Legacy (416m+ visits) and PARKOUR Reborn (18m+ visits). I exposed him for consuming zoophilic NSFW art, directly and indirectly promoting his NSFW account to minors, defending lolicon and covering up the situation.

In this document I'll revisit all of the evidence and add in additional proof/claims, such as Hudzell posting and allowing NSFW content inside of his Roblox game (that's full of children), commissioning NSFW feral art of himself, consuming pedophilic NSFW content (known as cub porn) threatening legal action towards those who covered the topic & more.

It's disgusting that Hudzell has been able to remain in the Roblox community without any repercussions. I'm hoping that with this document/video I'll be able to notify as many people as I can about what Hudzell has said and done and change the minds of those who are still defending him today.

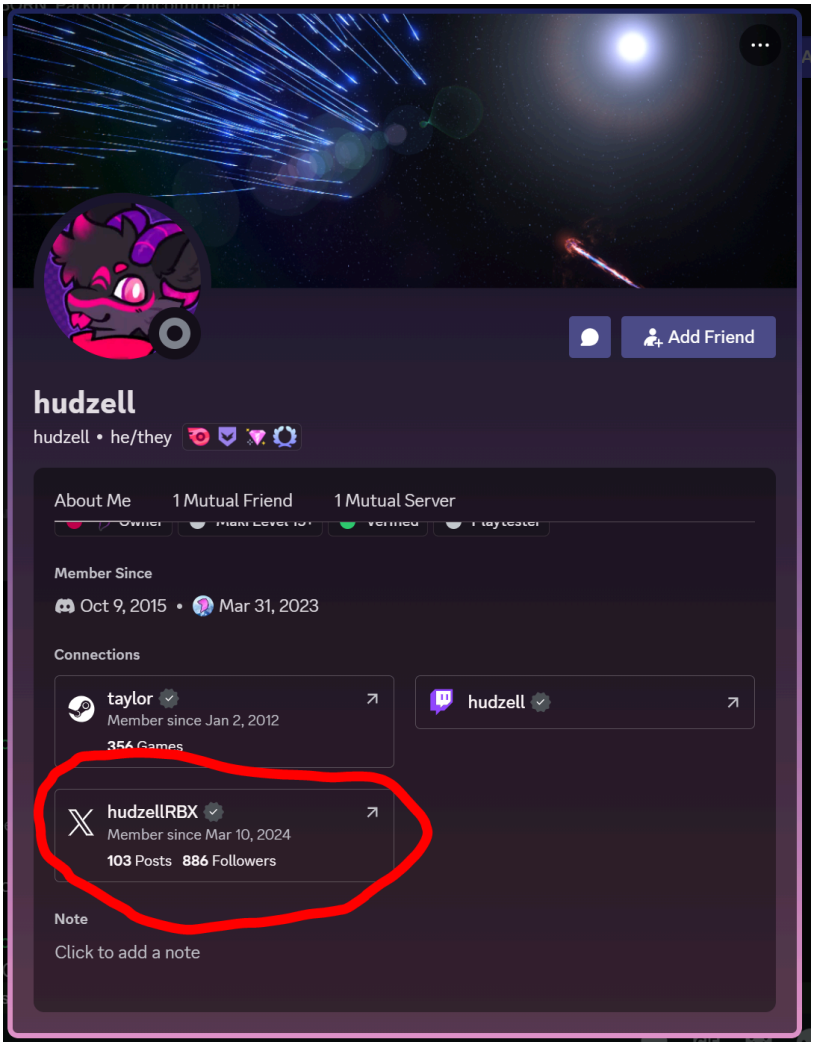
DISCLAIMER: Slovenian law protects value judgments based on facts as freedom of expression (Article 39, Constitution of Slovenia). All factual claims are supported by evidence, and any additional commentary is protected opinion. Defamation laws in Slovenia don't apply to serious criticism or defense of rights.

1. HUDZELL'S TWITTER AND BLUESKY ACCOUNTS

In this section I'll list all of Hudzell's Twitter/X and Bluesky accounts that we know of/are needed for context later on in the document. I'll also be proving that they are owned by Hudzell himself since many don't believe that some of the accounts in question are his.

@hudzellRBX

This is Hudzell's main Twitter account. It's connected to his Discord profile, which has the "Owner" role in the official Parkour REBORN Discord server. Pretty easy thing to prove.



@riijannsk

This is Hudzell's NSFW Twitter account. I could go many ways with proving this, but I'll take the route of Hudzell accidentally making the previously-mentioned legal threats on this @riijannsk account instead of his main Twitter account. (lmao)

I'll be talking about these legal threats in more detail later on, so stay tuned.

Another thing to note about this account is that it used to have the display name "🔞riijannsk". Most screenshots that include this account were taken when it had said display name.

@taylorain01

This is Hudzell's alt account on Twitter. It's cited in the location section of the @riijannsk account (it's described as "SFW", which I'll get into later).

riijann.fluff.gay

This is Hudzell's NSFW Bluesky account. It's cited in the display name of the @riijannsk Twitter account, as seen in the screenshot above.

This was Hudzell's main Twitter account before it got deleted and replaced by the @hudzellRBX account. Here's Hudzell saying that it was his.

2. THE MARCH 24TH INCIDENT (how all of this started)

The March 24th incident is a term coined by fans of the PARKOUR Reborn game, which refers to the beginning of Hudzell's "downfall". It began when the two Discord servers of the PARKOUR duology got raided by hackers who got access to an account of an admin/developer for the game, who goes by the name of Diabetisaur.

The raiders directed server members to another Discord server, where they leveled serious accusations against both Hudzell and Diabetisaur.

To my knowledge, most if not all of their claims were never supported by any real evidence, however these accusations led to the discovery of Hudzell's NSFW account and what was being reposted on it.

The two main reposts Hudzell was called out for at the time consisted of 4-legged Pokemon dogs with animal genitalia, remarkably having next to no human characteristics if not none at all, classifying it as feral porn and therefore zoophilic.

Obviously I can't show straight up porn to you, but if you don't believe me, just look a bit through the replies under the tweets of the @hudzellRBX account. There you can find these fully uncensored and see for yourself that they contain animal genitalia (if it wasn't obvious by the fact that one of these tweets contain a knot emoji in the text section).

A day after the incident, Hudzell publicly admitted on his @taylorain01 account that the content he reposted was feral porn. This (surprisingly) went under everyone's radar despite the tweet still being publicly available as of now, likely because Hudzell admitted this on his alt account.

Anyways, after the discovery of his NSFW account and the art being reposted on it, Hudzell took to his main Twitter account on the same day and made dozens of tweets/replies regarding the situation.

The most infamous statement during this ordeal was Hudzell stating that lolicon is not pedophilia.

For the uninitiated, lolicon is a genre of fictional media which focuses on young or young-looking girl characters, particularly in a sexually suggestive or erotic manner, which is extremely disgusting, as is saying that such media is not pedophilic.

I do not believe lolicon to be inherently pedophilic. The debates of lolicon and zoophilia are very much distinct issues and to conflate them for comparison is not viable.

By the way, the debates of lolicon and feral NSFW art being zoophilic aren't "very much distinct issues" as Hudzell says they are. Both sides' arguments basically consist of "Since the content is fictional and it isn't hurting anyone in real life, it's not morally unacceptable!", and in fact, Hudzell has used this exact argument before, which we'll get to shortly.

Other statements he made in addition to the ones he made about lolicon (that he deleted later on & apologized for) include a few about the NSFW content he consumes, lying/saying that it isn't zoophilic:

In a moment, I’ll show you a statement Hudzell made regarding the NSFW content he consumes, lying about the initial NSFW art that got him called out, saying that it’s anthropomorphic, when in reality it was anything but.

It started when the user under the alias of “@yukistaan” quote-tweeted one of Hudzell’s now deleted tweets regarding the NSFW content he consumes, calling out Hudzell:

yuki stan @yukistaan · Mar 24

After a short back-and-forth between the two (that I don't have an archive of), Hudzell stated the following:

hudzell @hudzellRBX · 7h
You clearly don't understand the difference. It may look like a dog to you, but is it a dog? Can you feel its fur? Does it have a beating heart? Is or was it alive at any point? No? Then it's not a dog. No animals were abused, nobody was hurt, no wrongs were done.

Just to clear this up to Hudzell - just because something is fictional doesn't automatically clear it of being morally unacceptable. Things like child abuse, non-consensual acts and animal exploitation is where the line is drawn, even in art, because of what it represents and/or encourages.

Hudzell doesn't think so though, which I find insane considering Hudzell is 23 years old and turning 24 this year. He was born on October 23, 2001 and at the time of these tweets he was 22 years old. He obviously also holds the same mindset about such art today, since - only 4 months ago -, he posted an image of himself in (what seems to be) VR-Chat, masturbating the animal genitalia on his avatar.

I want to note a few more things before I close off this segment.

One of the NSFW artworks that were initially called out in Hudzell's case was made by an NSFW artist known for drawing feral media.

Anthropomorphism is not the same as bipedalism. A quadruped can absolutely be anthropomorphic if it expresses or is displayed to exhibit intelligence or human-like features.
These characters are analogs for ourselves and our personas, they are purely fantasy.

Not that this is surprising, since I've proved already that he consumes feral NSFW many times in this document, but I just want to include everything I can in this document.

As for the other allegation, my only statement is that I am not a zoophile, the content I consume I do not consider zoophilic, and if your opinion differs, it's not your business.
I have no desire to abuse animals in any way. Zoophilia and bestiality is deplorable and disgusting.

Apparently if you think that somebody is a zoophile and have proof of it, it's none of your business? I don't really understand this tweet, and I invite Hudzell to explain it to me, as well as of course anything else he doesn't agree with in this document.

There are a lot of ways to contact me, the best one would probably be shooting me a DM on Discord. My username on there is "buckid" and as long as we share a mutual server, you can freely DM me.

3. BEFORE AND AFTER THE MARCH 24TH INCIDENT

This segment is more or less a thrown-together list of things Hudzell has done over the years, before and after the March 24th incident. The claims in this segment aren't in a specific order.

Let's start off with Hudzell displaying cropped NSFW content inside of his Roblox game.

Around August of 2022, Hudzell submitted a bypassed decal to the billboard system in PARKOUR Legacy that contained cropped NSFW. You might not catch it at first glance, but behind that red "click here" button is dragon genitalia.

There's a lot of proof of this, and amongst multiple screenshots, there's even a video of the billboard "in action".

Here's a link to the tweet that posted a recording of the billboard when it was up: https://x.com/mrhappymanny/status/1772736605456826561 (the tweet was posted in March of 2024, but I'm led to believe that the recording was taken in August of 2022 because of the following screenshots)

Here's Hudzell acknowledging the fact he'd get banned from the game for displaying such a billboard:

There was also another incident similar to this one, but instead of Hudzell being the one to display the cropped NSFW, it was a random player of the game and Hudzell defended them:

hudzell Today at 12:59 PM
Alright which dumbass banned this person for this billboard mido Today at 12:59 PM
Not Again
Boo Today at 12:59 PM its porn
i saw it

Mind you, the game had several thousands of children playing it concurrently at the time. I personally cannot identify him displaying NSFW content in the game as some mistake or joke, this is legit just predatory.

While we're on the topic of predatory behaviour, I want to talk about Hudzell's NSFW account being very open to minors in the past and present.

Up until January of 2025, Hudzell's NSFW Twitter account was unlocked for anyone to see what he was reposting, even during the March 24th incident - when the handle of the account was being thrown left and right as people were criticising him for the content he consumed. Same goes for his Bluesky account, but that one wasn't ever privated at all and is still up for anyone to see what he's posting.

In fact, there's a statement Hudzell has made which proves my point the best:

Hudzell literally recognizes that minors are easily accessing his account and being shown the NSFW content he reposts on it, and mocks the idea of preventing them from accessing such content. ???

As I've mentioned before, Hudzell has since privated his NSFW account, which on the surface looks like he realized that minors had easy access to the content he was reposting and he decided to shut that down, but in reality the actual reason is far from that.

In January of 2025, Hudzell got into an argument with Schlep, Ruben Sim & their fans on Twitter. The argument itself doesn't have much relevance to what I'm going to talk about, but it was basically something about Hudzell arguing that the amount of users in a furry NSFW subreddit is not an accurate source of how many furries are degenerates.

That's an argument that I actually agree with, but because of how ironic that was coming from Hudzell, people - including myself - started to call him out for having an NSFW account where he reposted furry & feral porn.

In turn, Hudzell pre-privated his NSFW account as a form of damage control/to prevent people from calling him out.

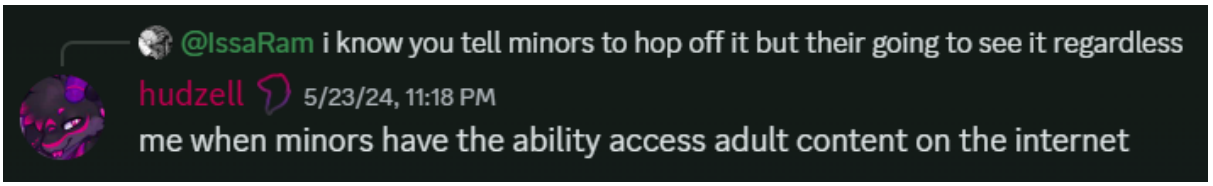
So yeah, that's why his account is locked. Not because he realised that what he was doing was wrong.

And I'm just going to drop this gem right here:



@IssaRam i know you tell minors to hop off it but their going to see it regardless hudzell 5/23/24, 11:18 PM me when minors have the ability access adult content on the internet

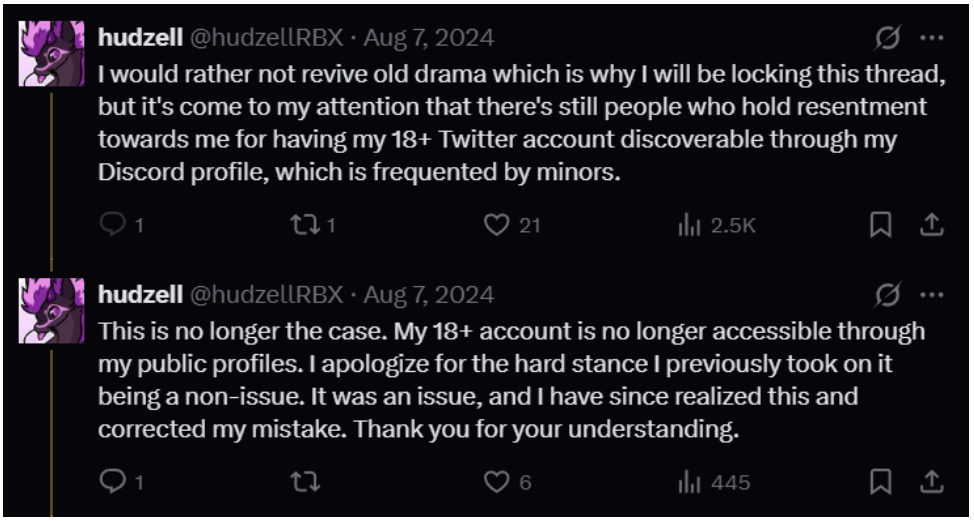
While we're on the topic of Hudzell's NSFW account, he indirectly advertised it to minors when he used to have his NSFW account linked to his Discord profile.

Not only that, according to Hudzell himself, he actually refused to remove the connection from his Discord profile for some time, even when people explicitly told him to do so.



hudzell @hudzellRBX · Aug 7, 2024
I would rather not revive old drama which is why I will be locking this thread, but it's come to my attention that there's still people who hold resentment towards me for having my 18+ Twitter account discoverable through my Discord profile, which is frequented by minors.

Hudzell isn't actually sorry here though, because I found out that he's currently defending his head admin RitualNeo, who is doing the exact same thing.

I'll put this shortly. RitualNeo has his YouTube channel discoverable through his Discord profile. There are plenty fetish-related videos on his channel. Two inflation videos, one stomping video, one vore video and two videos of just gameplay of the fetish game Changed.

Neo's comment on him being called out for that is:

And Hudzell is defending that. Just to let you know.

When talking about the content he consumes, Hudzell often denies it's zoophilic and references an artist named "Dacad" instead.

riijann.fluff.... @riijan... · Jan 26

(The arguments Hudzell refers to here didn't happen "over 1 year ago" as he claims by the way, at the time it was 10 months ago, but whatever.)

Anyways, Dacad is an NSFW artist who draws zoophilic NSFW content, and you might remember him from a few pages ago in this screenshot:

Again, note the "zoophilia" tag, clearly the argument of "It's not zoophilia, it's Dacad!" doesn't really hold up when you look into it.

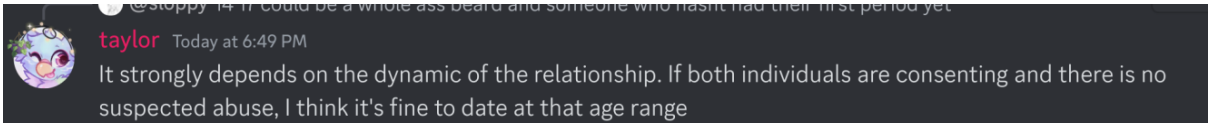
Here's an undated (before March 2024) statement Hudzell made in what I presume is the PARKOUR Legacy server before it was damaged beyond repair and deleted.



taylor Today at 6:49 PM
It strongly depends on the dynamic of the relationship. If both individuals are consenting and there is no suspected abuse, I think it's fine to date at that age range

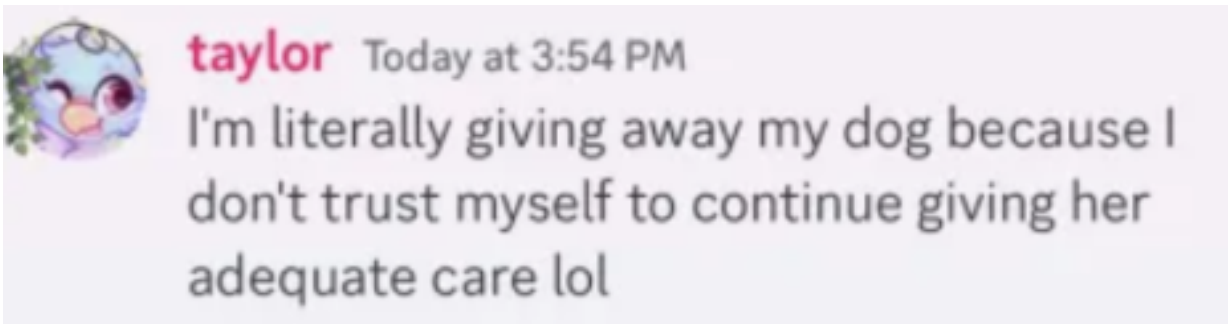
The message Hudzell is replying to here is cut off a bit, but you can tell that it says: "14-17 could be a whole ass beard and someone who hasnt had their first period yet".

If it's not obvious, a 14 year old and a 17 year old have an extremely big difference in maturity, life experiences, goals & so on. While I wouldn't immediately mark this statement as pedophilic, it's still a very controversial & questionable statement to make. Make of his statement what you will.
As I've mentioned at the beginning of the document, Hudzell has an alt account with the handle @taylorain01, and it's labeled as SFW on his @riijannsk account. But surprise surprise, it's not actually SFW, at least not fully.

Here's a clip from my initial video on Hudzell, as I'm really not in the mood to look at more NSFW on his account:

https://youtube.com/clip/UgkxlKmAP4DtEG925JYe_Dv4BMMGp-qXAMxq?si=vbMEbZuWeUp1aItR

Here's another undated statement (before March 2024) in which I - again - presume is the PARKOUR Legacy server.



taylor Today at 3:54 PM
I'm literally giving away my dog because I don't trust myself to continue giving her adequate care lol

If my previous points didn't convince you that he shouldn't own a dog, I'm hoping this one will.

In December of 2024, Hudzell saw a tweet on his timeline which read: "Someone just left a discord server I'm in because I said Hitler being dead is good". He then decided to reply to it, arguing that "Hitler didn't deserve to die". This tweet was obviously met with backlash, but not very much of it after he deleted the tweets shortly after.

I don't think Hudzell is a straight-up nazi, but c'mon who says that Hitler didn't deserve to die bro

There's two more things I wanna mention in this segment, and I put them towards the end of the segment because of the questionability around them.

The first one that I'm going to talk about seems to be a genuine mistake, while the other is a bit outdated.

In December of 2024, Hudzell accidentally reposted sexually suggestive tweets on the wrong account, as he forgot to switch from the @hudzellRBX account to his NSFW account. This seems to have been an honest mistake though, and the only critique I have of this is that Hudzell should be more careful about things like this, but otherwise I don't think this is that big of a deal.

I found this out after the rest of the document was entirely finished, so I figured I'd put this towards the end of this segment, but Hudzell reposts cub porn on his NSFW account.

If you're unaware of what cub porn is, this is a definition of the word i got from the Urban Dictionary:

cub porn
Basically F*@#ed up furry child porn. Mainly viewed and created by messed up 60 year olds (or lonely horny teenagers).
It is basically a legal version of child pornography, but where all the characters are animated.
Tom - "Hey mate, whatcha up to?"
Alex- "Just browsing through some cub porn"
Tom - "WTF is that??"
Alex- "Its basically, furry, legal child porn!"
Tom- "Sweet! Count me in"

Nigga isnt a bad word

Yeah. Not much commentary to add here. The images speak for themselves.

In this undated message he states that “n-word allegations have a 6 month shelf-life”? As if he gets to decide that at all?

n-word allegations have a 6 month shelf-life, sorry THC is recreationally legal in my state, NC. i get my weed lawfully from my local dispensary
"addy" is adderall, I take prescribed adderall as needed as I am diagnosed ADHD i was under the influence of solely alcohol during that Q&A, which was irresponsible of me i do not condone minors for usage of any psychoactive substances including alcohol and drugs, however i promote strong education on all subjects, tabboo or not, including alcohol, drugs, sex, etc.
for clarification, i should have used the world "psychedelics" instead of "hallucinogens", as hallucinogens include psychedelics as well as deliriants and dissociatives, which the latter two i am undereducated on my twitter @hudzell is not and has never been for anything other than personal usage. having an AD account isn't a crime lol the "feral" topic is widely debated, however my official statement is that zoophilia is morally wrong and extremely abusive i follow goop cause his art is good lol

Ignore the drug thing, he apparently received backlash for coding his game while drugged/intoxicated (which is stupid, especially considering all of the other things you can criticise him for).

But yeah, that’s it for this segment.

4. LEGAL THREATS & THE COVER UP

On December 8th, a video titled “The most depraved roblox developer ever” by Jamesrr premiered.

The video obviously went over the Hudzell situation, and a day after it premiered, Jamesrr received a Twitter DM from Hudzell. Hudzell firstly invites Jamesrr to have a discussion about his video, admitting that he's made "several mistakes and some major PR blunders" but claims that Jamesrr's video was somehow defamatory? Even though the video was supported by lots of evidence?

He then calls himself an honest person, which he disproves himself within the same day as he admits he didn't even watch the video before calling it defamatory.

I will be honest and say I sent that message before I watched the whole video XD
I think your video is great, the best coverage of the situation thus far. However, I appreciate your assertion to not harass me at the end, but you literally called me a degenerate human being the entire video lol. You're entitled to your opinions, but you should be careful because these kinds of videos can ruin careers.

By the way, the thing he calls defamatory is Jamesrr calling him a degenerate, which is seen as protected opinion under the First Amendment of the United States of America (where both Hudzell and Jamesrr are from).

Not to mention that Jamesrr's statement of Hudzell being a degenerate is supported by Hudzell's extensive history of degenerate acts (such as consuming feral porn).
For example, here is Hudzell commissioning NSFW artwork of himself that contains animal genitalia.

In the following pages are Jamesrr's full DMs with Hudzell, from where I quoted Hudzell's previous statements.

Hi! Would you be open to a discussion or dialogue regarding your latest video? I'm interested in clearing things up. I understand that we share different opinions and stories, but I'm interested in speaking to you so we can be on the same page.

I've made several mistakes and some major PR blunders, but I would like to advocate for myself anyways, because I believe that your video is highly destructive, defamatory, and is a threat to my career and livelihood.

I know myself to be an honest person who has never sought harm or abuse upon any life, but I understand how the things you've seen might lead you to believe otherwise, and I would like to attempt to convince you that I am far from a villain.

Ultimately, I would like the video taken down. If the impacts are great enough, I may seek legal action, but I don't want to go that route.

Regardless of the disclaimer, publicly calling someone a "degenerate" or similar can still be seen as defamatory or an act of targeted harassment. The disclaimer does not erase the harm caused by the main content of the video. Even if you explicitly tell viewers not to harass me, labeling me in such a way can provoke viewers to act on that sentiment. Disclaimers like "don't harass this person" are generally seen as attempts to evade responsibility while still creating content likely to provoke harassment or harm.

Since I helped extensively in making Jamesrr's video (the screenshotted credits below are directly from the description of the video), I don't think it'd be crazy to say that these legal threats are also an indirect attack on me.

This video was inspired by Buckid's "the worst response to roblox allegations." Buckid has also helped provide me with sources, screenshots, and evidence for the video.

(the link to the google doc in the last image is my previous document on the matter)

I doubt Hudzell will actually follow through with legal action, since suing minors wouldn't really help his already fucked PR, lol. I think he was just trying to scare Jamesrr off by mentioning legal action possibly being taken against him.

Hudzell also covered up the situation in the PARKOUR Reborn Discord server, as a day after March 24th, a rule was established in the server that extensively prevented members from talking about the situation. For example, just saying the phrases "Parkour Reborn is over" and "The game is dead" will get you punished, and those two phrases are literally quoted in the rules:

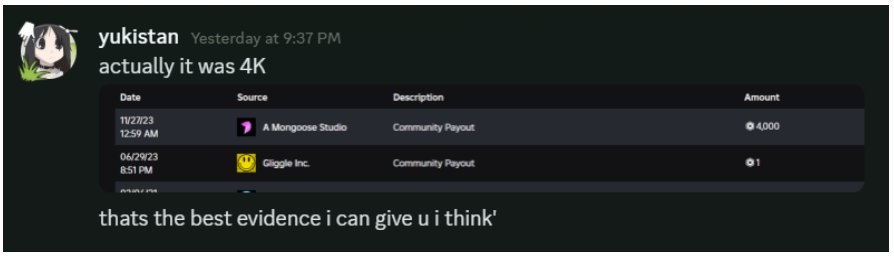
11. Misinformation and Rumor Policy
i) The spreading of misinformation, including unfounded rumors or claims, is not tolerated.
ii) Discussions that negatively speculate on the vitality of our studio or game, including declarations of its decline, are prohibited. This includes but is not limited to declarations such as "the game is dead" or "parkour reborn is over."
Official A Mongoose Studio Discord Server

Most of the people who even knew about Hudzell's actions were PARKOUR Reborn fans, and I believe that not being allowed to talk about Hudzell's actions in the server led to the topic being mostly uncovered.

Hopefully that will change now though. If you're a YouTuber, I encourage you to make your own video on this. Crediting me (@buckid) would also be nice, if that's not too much to ask for.

This next one is more of a shaky claim, but the development team behind the PARKOUR Games (I don't know if it was Hudzell directly) allegedly gave an ex-staff member hush money (4,000 robux) after they called out the transphobia of two other staff members.

All of the proof of transphobia is in a Twitter thread made by user @yukistaan, here's a link to it if you want to check it out: https://x.com/yukistaan/status/1728163060123136101



This is more of an allegation rather than an actual proven thing, since I wasn't provided concrete evidence that these 4,000 robux are hush money, but nevertheless I feel like it still belongs in this document.

5. WHAT TO DO ABOUT HUDZELL?

Unfortunately, a police report can't be made, since in North Carolina (the state Hudzell lives in) consuming feral/zoophilic NSFW content is not illegal.

But for starters, you can sign the change.org petition that's currently fighting to take Hudzell's dog Freya away from him.

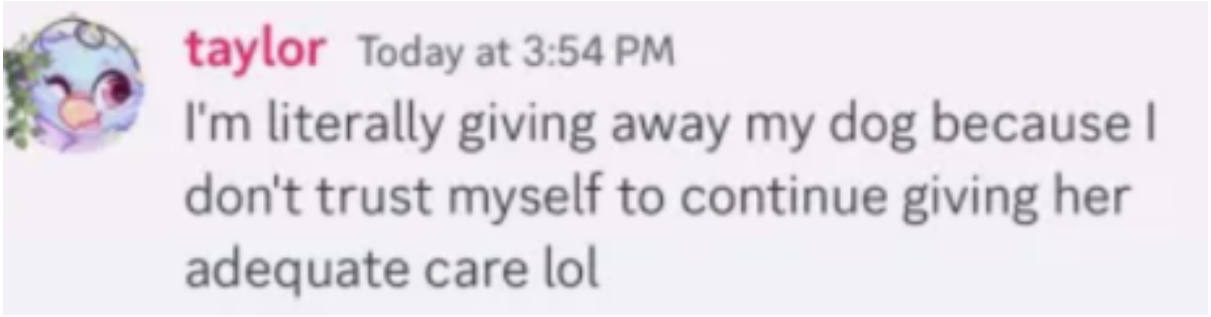
https://www.change.org/p/protect-freya-from-hudzell-s-abusive-actions

If the petition gets enough signatures, Animal Control Services could notice the petition and act on it accordingly.

Reminder that Hudzell himself stated that he doesn't trust himself to give Freya adequate care:



taylor Today at 3:54 PM
I'm literally giving away my dog because I don't trust myself to continue giving her adequate care lol

What you can also do is spread this topic around, if you're just a viewer, send it around in the PARKOUR community or anywhere you seem fit, if you're a YouTuber, make your own video covering this situation, etc. etc.
